

Philadelphia, June 2nd, 1879.

Dear Sir:

The object of this circular is to bring to your notice

BAKER'S EXTRACT OF MALT.

This preparation, which has become standard with many physicians, is now rapidly growing into favor with the profession at large, and has already become an established and universally valued Specific and Dietetic.

The astonishing success which has followed its introduction is a significant comment on its worth, while the continuance of its popularity confirms the approval first awarded it.

The Extract, as prepared by us, is PURE and possesses the FULL STRENGTH of the best, selected, Canada Malted Barley. IT CONTAINS NO ALCOHOL, and being prepared IN VACUO according to the most approved principles experience has developed, it cannot be excelled by any preparation in the market, if, indeed, it is equalled.

Physicians who have for years in their practice used our Cod-Liver Oil as the purest obtainable, need fear no abatement of our care and skill in the manufacture of our new specialty. Our ambition has always been to furnish the profession with preparations which they could prescribe with entire confidence. Our name is a guarantee of purity, and any preparation bearing our genuine label may be relied upon as perfect.

BAKER'S COD-LIVER OIL WITH EXTRACT OF MALT.

We also combine the Extract with our Cod-Liver Oil, and flatter ourselves that we have succeeded in obtaining the best combination of the two yet presented for favor. Its benefits have been acknowledged by the best professional talent, and as a therapeutic agent for the restoration of debilitated systems and as a preventive and cure of Consumption in those predisposed to it, or suffering with it, this preparation stands deservedly high on the list of favorites.

The most delicate stomachs receive and retain this, even when other combinations have been rejected.

Should you desire to prescribe this preparation, you need have no fear that the Oil will antagonize the most sensitive organization.

Both above preparations are put up, in FULL PINT bottles, retailing for $1.00,
